TREATMENT OF JEWS.
Promise to Improve Their Condition If Anti-Russian Agitation Is Discouraged.
(Associated Press.)
London, June 29.—Lord Mayor Samuel, in a speech yesterday at the prize distribution of the religious classes at one of the London synagogues, said it was quite useless to bring agitation to bear in the hope of inducing Russia in regard to the treatment of the Jews. Their brethren in Australia, animated by the generous feeling, had passed a resolution which it became his duty to submit to the foreign office. In following their wishes he was aware that the result would be, therefore he was not surprised when assured this was an international matter, and that the foreign office could do nothing. The Jews of this country, the Lord Mayor continued, desired for their brethren in Russia religious equity, and he believed he was right in saying the Car was most anxious that the boon should be extended to his Hebrew subjects, but there were other difficulties to overcome. The case was different from that of Roumania, where treaty rights were violated. Russia was under no treaty obligations, and was free to manage her international affairs as she thought best. It was only by appealing

MAN BEAT HIS WIFE TO DEATH AND GAVE HIMSELF UP TO THE POLICE

Engineer Overcome by Steam and Completely Cooked—Hugh J. Macdonald Suffering From Pleurisy.

Boy Shot.
Halifax, June 29.—John Hennessy, sixteen years old, was shot dead yesterday afternoon by the discharge of a rifle in the hands of some companions. His four companions were arrested and charged jointly with causing death. It is thought the shooting was accidental.

Scalded to Death.
London, Ont., June 29.—Wm. Steer, engineer at the Sifton Powder Co., was scalded to death yesterday morning. He was in the act of opening up a steam pipe which had become plugged with scales, when a rush of steam overpowered him. When found he was completely cooked. He was about fifty years old, and leaves a widow and large family.

H. J. Macdonald.
Winnipeg, June 29.—Enquiries this morning at the residence of Hugh John Macdonald elicited the information that although he was suffering from pleurisy, his condition had at no time been critical. He is now much better, and is expected to be about in four or five days.

Adjourned For Week.
The criminal libel suit of Dr. McFadden vs. John W. Dufos, managing editor of the Free Press, was called this morning in the police court, but was adjourned by mutual consent for one week.

EXCURSIONISTS KILLED.
Trolley Car Dashed Into a Freight Train—Two People Killed and Many Injured.

(Associated Press.)
Chicago, June 29.—Crowded with home-bound passengers, an Archer avenue trolley car crashed into a Belt Line freight train at Archer avenue and Forty-seventh street early today. Two passengers were killed and many were seriously injured. Witnesses of the accident say the trolley car brakes refused to work. The passengers had not time to jump before the accident. Nearly all were returning from picnics, and were asleep in the car. The motorman, John Sloan, stuck to his post and was badly injured. The passengers were thrown from their seats, and several were buried in the debris of the wrecked car.

Another Accident.
Des Moines, Iowa, June 27.—Two trainmen are dead and five are seriously injured as a result of a head-on collision that occurred in the yards of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway in this city early today between an accommodation train and a freight train drawn by two engines. The wreck was caused by the out-bound train pulling out without orders, under the impression that the freight train had pulled in. Both trains were travelling at a high rate of speed.

WOUNDED BY NEGRO.
Discharged a Shotgun at a Passing Trolley Car and Injured Six People.

(Associated Press.)
Medina, Penn., June 29.—Six persons have been shot and severely wounded on a trolley car between Medina and Chester. A negro, believed to have been seeking revenge because the conductor of the car recently ejected him, discharged both barrels of a shotgun at the car as it passed a lonely spot in the country. The car was crowded. Four women were among the wounded. The negro made his escape.

AMERICAN YACHTS.
Unfavorable for First of Races in Which Reliance, Columbia and Constitution Take Part.

(Associated Press.)
Bateman's Point, B. I., June 29.—Weather conditions were anything but propitious today for the starting of the first Newport series of races between the American cup yachts Reliance, Constitution and Columbia. Races were scheduled for every day this week, with the start of the Reliance's Reef lights, and in anticipation of good sport scores of yachts gathered today. The races are under the direction of the New York Yacht Club. It seemed probable that bad weather would force a postponement of today's race.

PERSECUTING BULGARIANS.

Campaign Appears to Have Been Organized by Turks—Many Soldiers on the Scene.

(Associated Press.)
London, June 29.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Morning Leader says the situation in the Vilayet of Adrianople is very grave. There are many indications that Bulgaria and Turkey regard an outbreak of war as a probable contingency. It is reliably certain that Turkish authorities are organizing a regular persecution of Bulgarian inhabitants, their villages being razed to the ground and many notable Bulgarians being imprisoned on slight pretences.

The Turkish troops in the Vilayet number 120,000.

(Special to the Times.)

SHOT AT BALL GAME.
One of the Players Killed and the Umpire Seriously Injured.

(Associated Press.)
Quitman, Georgia, June 29.—As the result of a ball game near here between teams composed of negroes from several plantations, Sam Johnson, one of the players, is dead and Umpire Edmondson is seriously wounded.

There had been great rivalry between negroes employed on the Spain and Griffith plantations, and trouble was anticipated when the game began. In the ninth inning, with the score a tie, Sam Johnson, a Spanish negro, started to steal second. The man at the bat interfered with the catcher, and the "steal" seemed easy for Johnson, when he was shot by an anti-Spanish rooter among the spectators. The umpire insisted that a man take Johnson's place at second, and this decision so enraged the Griffith rooters that the umpire was shot and the game was broken up. Johnson died soon after being shot. Officers have made no arrests as the negroes refuse to inform.

TO CONTINUE STRIKE.

Report That Federation Has Provided for Immediate Support of the Ladies' Miners.

(Special to the Times.)
Nanaimo, June 29.—The regular weekly meeting of the Ladies' miners was held in Fine hall yesterday afternoon. Nothing beyond the usual routine business was transacted, as far as could be learned. Andrew Bryden returned from Victoria where he has for the past few days been in consultation with J. Dunsmuir. He had, however, nothing further to report to the committee.

It is stated the Western Federation at Denver propose to fight the Ladies' strike to a finish, and has provided immediate support for its men to carry on the fight. The exact amount that is to be distributed is not actually known, but is believed to be in the neighborhood of $15,000 monthly. As a matter of fact, Representative Moore has wired the executive recommending not less than a monthly allowance of $20,000.

A rumor is current at Ladysmith that in the event of the strike not being settled by the end of next week the mines are to be reopened, when as many as return as was to sign the necessary agreement, and last Chinese will be put in to make up a sufficient number to work the collieries.

At Cumberland matters are quiet and orderly. Forty-one whites and 750 Chinese and Japanese are mining. The output of coal now almost equals that of any time before the trouble. There appears to be no wavering on the part of the strikers, who are confident of ultimate victory.

Steam was turned on yesterday for the first time since the fire at the Ladysmith Lumber Company's new sawmill at Fiddle's Junction. The mills have been rebuilt on a more modern scale.

Operations were commenced on Saturday on the stone quarries at Newcastle Island, which have been leased from the Western Fuel Co. by a San Francisco firm. Some fifty men are now at work clearing up the quarries.

TROUBLE LIKELY OVER MANCHURIA

JAPAN MAY TAKE DRASTIC MEASURES

Nation Will Support Any Action by the Government to Safeguard Her Interests.

(Associated Press.)
London, June 29.—According to the Tokyo correspondent of the Times, the excitement in Japan over the Manchurian problem is increasing, and the nation is plainly resolved to support the government in any measures which are deemed essential to assert the right and safeguard the interests of the country. Marquis Ito and Count Yamagata, who hitherto advised a waiting policy now, it is understood, advocate resolute action by the Japanese government.

Russia and Japan.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The visit of the Russian war minister General Kurapatkin, to Japan, has, according to the Japanese newspapers, had a very satisfactory effect on the relations between Russia and Japan, and has paved the way for a rapprochement. The newspapers of Japan, in expressing satisfaction at the state of affairs, refer to General Kurapatkin as the harbinger of peace, and point out that he has been the Mikado's guest at the Shiba palace, where, no foreigners, except Princes of the royal blood, had ever before resided.

Commercial Treaty.

London, June 29.—The Times correspondent at Peking says it is announced that the ratification of the commercial treaty between China and Great Britain, which was signed by Sir James L. Mackay and the Chinese commissioners at Shanghai last September, is on its way to Peking, and ratifications will presumably be exchanged after its arrival, although China has not vouchsafed a reply to the queries of the British government regarding her intentions as to the carrying into effect of some more loosely worded clauses of the treaty. Article 8 of the treaty provides for the abolition of Likin barriers, while the native custom houses enumerated in the appendix to the records are retained. The functions of Likin barriers and the custom houses are largely interchangeable. The treaty also provides that Great Britain must be furnished with a list of customs houses, concerning the number of which there is a great diversity of opinion. The treaty commissioner estimated their number at 18 to 25 only, while experts in the inland trade say the customs stations number at present a thousand. If article 8 becomes operative the British officials in China will require to redouble their vigilance.

TRAGEDY IN JAIL.

Condemned Murderer Killed Fellow Prisoner and Afterwards Ended His Own Life.

Hot Spring, Ark., June 27.—Jim Dougherty, condemned to die August 14th for the murder of Chief of Detectives Jack Donahue here on Christmas day last, today deliberately assaulted with a razor and killed Roger Williams, a fellow prisoner, in the county jail. Dougherty was searched and relieved of a razor three weeks ago, during his trial, and he held Williams responsible for this action of the officers. Today, while Williams was stooping over a wash basin washing his face, Dougherty approached from behind, and, reaching close under and across his abdomen, thrust the razor into his back, making a gash two inches long. Williams was moved to a sanatorium, where he died. Dougherty was perching into the cells and calling for other prisoners to come out into the corridor that he might slaughter them, when the jailer arrived, and, at the point of a revolver, drove him into his cell.

A mob of 500 people gathered at the jail tonight, and while the sheriff was pleading with the people to let the law take its course, a female prisoner in the corridor called out through the window that Dougherty had cut his throat. The sheriff quickly investigated, and found that the murderer had taken the steel end of his shoestrings, flattened them out and made a two-inch incision on each side of his throat, causing death.

GERMAN REICHSTAG.

Berlin, June 29.—The two remaining Reichstag on Saturday for members of the Reichstag resulted in the election of one Reikster Radical and one member of the Bavarian Peasant League. The composition of the Reichstag shows: Clericals, 102; Socialists, 81; Conservatives, 82; National Liberals, 51. Other parties are represented by from one to twenty-one members.

An instance of crime being reported by pigeons has occurred in Paris. Burglars broke into a furniture store in a house in the Rue de Regent, from which the tenants were absent temporarily, and while searching the place they opened a basket and liberated two carrier pigeons. The birds immediately flew through an open window to the tenant's country home at Villeneuve St. Georges. Their owner suspected what had occurred, and notified the police, who telephoned to the Paris police. The latter visited the flat, but found that the burglars had got away after ransacking the place.

EFFECTIVE LITERATURE.

Tourist Association's Circulars Accomplishing Good Work as Appended Letter Indicates.

The following letter, which has been received by the Tourist Association, will show how potent and far reaching the literature is which that organization is distributing:
Los Angeles, Cal., June 24th, 1903.
Mr. Herbert Gubbart, Secretary Tourist Association, Victoria, B. C.:
Dear Sir—I have by me a little booklet called "Picturing Victoria," in the back of which is stated that a larger edition of mine has been issued and may be had for the writing. Two years ago I passed through Victoria, at least the boat stopped there and we spent four delightful hours in the park and riding around, and I was impressed strongly at the time that it would be a most lovely spot to spend our three months' summer outing. My strenuous business life nearly drove it out of my mind, but this little book brought it back to me, and so I concluded to write to you for the larger booklet and any other literature you might have on the subject, and please see that it is sent to me to spend the summer at Victoria.
Very truly yours,
FRANCIS E. MELLETT,
629-628 Trust Building,
Los Angeles, Cal.

INTERNATIONAL RACES.

Will Take Place at Port Townsend—Communication From Whatcom.

The proposal to hold the international yacht races of July 4th at Whatcom this year instead of Port Townsend has fallen through. The following self-explanatory letter has been received by Sergeant Mulekely, secretary of the Victoria Yacht Club:

Whatcom, June 29th.
Dear Sir—I regret to state that through the failure of the various clubs to respond to our invitation, a few days ago we notified the Port Townsend club that the races would have to be held there as usual. They will undoubtedly have their preparations well under way by this time.

We are sorry that we are thus compelled to forego the pleasure of entertaining your club, but trust that next year we may have the opportunity.
Respectfully yours,
W. H. ABBOTT,
Secretary B. B. Yacht Club.

An invitation has been received by the secretary of the local club to attend the semi-centennial anniversary of the Carolina Yacht Club, Wrightsville Beach, North Carolina, which takes place on Tuesday, June 30th. Although this courtesy is appreciated it is hardly likely that a representative of the local club will be present.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

This being St. Peter's day the Pope celebrated mass in the private chapel adjoining his bedroom, in the presence of his chaplain and members of the Pontifical family, with whom his Holiness afterwards held a short conversation.

An official announcement has been made by one of the executive officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that the last returns show that the $75,000,000 of new stock has all been taken by the shareholders, and that 90 per cent. of it has been paid up in full.

A special to the Kansas City Star from Houston says a fire is raging in the Sour Lake oil fields. It began in Guffey's tanks, where thousands of barrels of oil are stored. The entire field is endangered. The fire started from an explosion. On Sunday while standing in semi-darkness on the bridge over Coney Island creek, New York, a trolley car, containing 60 persons, was smashed into splinters by a five car third rail train. Forty persons escaped serious injury, and of the remainder, only one, Policeman O'Rourke, with a broken rib, and possible internal injuries, is considered in any danger.

Three students belonging to the gymnasium of Arelo were recently overwhelmed by an avalanche in the vicinity of Mount St. Gothard, and killed. Five others were seriously injured.

The directors of the Rutland Railway Company have elected G. T. Jarvis, the general manager, to be vice-president, who will have charge of the road during the absence of Dr. W. Seward Webb, the president, who is seriously ill.

INQUEST HELD ON THE MURDERED MAN

VERDICT RENDERED BY CORONER'S JURY

Confession of Prisoner Verified in Some Particulars by Survey of the Scene of Crime.

The provincial police are steadily working up the murder case at Esquimalt. Sergeant F. Murray, assisted by Officer D. Campbell, have been busily employed since Saturday gathering the meagre evidence which is forthcoming. Step by step they are following the case up, assisted by the statement which the accused made to Superintendent Hussey on Saturday.

With no eye-witnesses and not even any evidence to show that the shot which terminated the storehouse-keeper's life was heard by anyone, there is only circumstantial verification of the story told by the accused Frith.

There are circumstances which bear out the story in part. There are other features of it, however, for which no corroboration is obtainable. Frith's story that an altercation had taken place and that the murdered man attempted to assault him with a piece of board and afterwards a barrel stove, is not borne out by an examination of the place where the crime was committed.

The storehouse where Bailey was killed has two doors close to the extreme ends of the building. One of these doors is locked from the outside. The other is always locked on the inside, and the key left in the door.

Outside that door there is standing a packing box which bears out in that particular the story told by Frith. Directly opposite the door two empty cans stand. Mr. Payne, the storehouseman for this particular building, says that on Thursday night at 5 o'clock when he closed the building no box was outside the door, and there were three boxes inside. Friday was a holiday, and the storehouses were all closed. On Saturday the box was noticed outside, and one of the three inside is missing. It is quite probable to his mind that this box moved out there early Saturday morning.

On the basis of the story told by Frith, the men must have entered this building by the door at the other end from where the box was taken out. The storehouse is perhaps 90 feet long. After putting this box outside the door was again locked on the inside, and apparently they started for the door by which they came in. The course is along the top of a long line of ropes, which lie thickly upon the floor.

A little distance from the door and just before the men would leave the rope strewn floor, the body of the victim was found in a pool of blood among the ropes. He was lying face downward. His hands were close together in front of the body, just about the waist. In one hand he clasped the key to his own storehouse, which lies some little distance from this one.

There is no evidence of any scuffle having ensued. None of the articles of defence which Frith mentioned as having been used by the murdered man are to be found.

Not far from where the victim must have been when the shot was fired is a wolverine iron lying on a table, which would have proved a formidable weapon of self defence, and which has apparently never been lifted from its place. This bears out the theory that Frith walking close behind Bailey as they came down the room fired the shot without warning. Divers will attempt to find the revolver off the wharf today.

The Inquest.

A jury was empanelled by Coroner Hart on Saturday. On that evening the body was examined by the coroner to allow of the remains being handed over to the friends of the deceased, which was done yesterday.

The jury was composed as follows: D. Grievies (foreman), J. Craig, John Cadwallar, B. H. Nunn, Jas. Mesher and M. Jones.

This morning the jury again sat in the Esquimalt schoolhouse and completed their duty. Supt. Hussey, of the provincial police, and Geo. Powell, representing the prisoner, were also present.

Dr. Humes, hospital sergeant at the Royal Naval hospital, was the first witness called. He testified to the post mortem examination he had made of the body of the deceased. He had found the hair and skin scorched at the back of the neck on the right side. There was a bruise about the right eyeball and a blood stain across the fingers of the right hand. Opening the skull he had found the course of the bullet from the back of the neck at the base of the skull upward to near the right eye. The bones had been fractured where the bullet came in contact with it. At the base of the brain there had been a considerable fracture of the skull. There was bone had been fractured where the bullet which was produced was found in the skull just near the eye.

In reply to Foreman Grievies witness said there was no possibility of the deceased having fired the shot himself. He could not possibly have held the weapon in a position to allow of the bullet taking the course which it did. The weapon, he would judge, was held perhaps four inches from his head.

Sergt. Thos. Lough was on duty on Saturday morning. At 10 o'clock he was called to the office by Mr. Grady, who

A Criminal Libel Case in Winnipeg Over Charges Against Provincial Secretary McFadden.

Toronto, June 27.—Very few members were present when Lieut. Governor Mortimer Clarke prorogued the legislature to-day and gave his assent to six bills, making 131 in all passed this session, out of 205 introduced. The speech from the throne made no reference to the Giesey matter.

Protest Against Rates.

The Canadian Manufacturers' Association charges that all changes in railway freight rates since January have been illegal, as they have not received the sanction of the Governor-General-in-Council. Merchants are now advised by the association to pay all increased rates under protest. The association will gather information from those who have complaints, and lay it before the railway committee to show why the new schedules should not be sanctioned.

Funeral of C. W. Taylor.

The funeral of the late C. W. Taylor, manager of the Globe, took place to-day, and although private, was largely attended by business men of the city, and representatives of the business interests in all parts of Canada, and even the United States.

Open Air Campaign.

A meeting of Conservatives will be held in King Edward hotel, Monday evening, for the purpose of considering the advisability of holding open air demonstrations of the Conservatives of Canada about the latter part of August.

New Superintendent.

Herbert F. Gardiner, editor of the Hamilton Times, will, it is understood, be appointed superintendent of the institute for the blind at Brantford, in succession to the late Dr. Dymont.

Due to Creditors.

Assignee Clarkson announced that the ordinary creditors of the estate of C. W. Anderson & Son, private bankers, Oakville, will receive about two and a half cents on the dollar.

Censured Officers.

St. Thomas, June 27.—Col. Peters, D. O. C., inspected the 25th Regiment last night and severely censured the officers because of the condition of the regiment. As a result Col. McArthur, the commanding officer, has resigned and other officers expressed their intention of doing the same.

In State of Collapse.

George Rowley, manager of the Elgin Loan & Savings Company, is in a state of mental and physical collapse, and is not expected to live to be tried for his alleged crime. Revelations of the past few days go to show that he has been stealing from the company for the past twelve years, while at the same time he took a leading part in religious circles of the city.

Criminal Libel Case.

Winnipeg, June 27.—The editor of the Free Press, J. W. Dufour, was served with a warrant for arrest on a charge of criminal libel, taken at the instance of Dr. McFadden, provincial secretary, in connection with the charges made that Contractor George H. MacDonnell had been compelled to pay over $5,000 before he could secure a settlement with the government on his Boyne marsh damage contract. Mr. Dufour appeared before a magistrate, and had no difficulty in securing bail. Dr. McFadden gives the charge an emphatic denial.

Attempted Burglary.

Burglars attempted to blow open the safe in Young & Buck's mill at Killarney last night. The safe was drilled and a charge of powder exploded without any result other than partially destroying the safe. It was evidently the work of professionals, but they failed.

CORDIALITY RESTORED

Between Germany and United States—Comments on Hearing of American Sailors.

Berlin, June 27.—The newspapers of Berlin print the speeches of Emperor William and United States Ambassador Tower at the Kiel banquet last night, mostly without comment. The National Zeitung regards them as important demonstrations for the promotion of German-American relations. The Tageblatt thinks the speeches breathe cordiality, sympathy and restored confidence; but the paper reverts to the Coghlan and Dewey incidents to show that the friendly spirit of the American navy for Germany is a new thing, and is due to President Roosevelt's energetic steps.

JAILER AS STABLE BOY.

Desperate Convict Escapes From the Knox County Prison in Tennessee.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 27.—Harvey Logan, the Montana train robber, under sentence of 20 years, escaped from the Knox county jail this afternoon. While his guard's back was turned, Logan threw a wire over his head and lassoed him, tying him tight to the bars of his cage. Having one entire floor of the jail himself, Logan next secured two pistols, placed in the corridor of the jail for the use of the officers, if needed. When Jailer Bell appeared in answer to a knock from Logan, the prisoner passed out a bottle, saying he wanted some medicine. As the jailer put out his hand, Logan covered him with a pistol, forced him to unlock the door, and take him to the basement of the jail. He then forced Bell to take him to the sheriff's stable and saddle the sheriff's horse. This done, Logan mounted and rode away in the direction of the mountains. A posse started in pursuit of the desperado within an hour.

NO TRUTH IN THE STORY OF DISASTER

THE WAR OFFICE
CONTRADICTS REPORT

Message Was From French Source and Fortunately Without Foundation—General Manning's Message.

On Saturday a dispatch was published stating that the Mad Mullah had destroyed five British posts between Bero and Beholein, Somaliland, that 39 British officers and 42 white men were killed in the engagements, and that 2,000 native soldiers were made prisoners.

This information, which came from Paris and was by error credited to a London source, fortunately turns out to be unfounded, and all readers will be pleased to learn that the British force has not met disaster, but on the other hand the Mad Mullah's followers are disorganized.

A telegram was received by the war office, London, which proved the report to be incorrect, but unfortunately the message arrived here incomplete, the important statement being omitted. The result was that the dispatch as received at the Times office on Saturday conveyed an entirely different meaning to what was intended. The complete dispatch follows:

London, June 27.—The war office has received a telegram from Somaliland enabling it to contradict the French report of a British disaster. The last news of the Mad Mullah was that he was moving eastward on the British forces, threatening the lines between Obura and Beholein, which were the only British means of communication with the coast.

The war office dispatch was sent by General Manning from Beholein, on June 26th, and announced his arrival there unopposed. He captured a number of the Mad Mullah's camels and sheep, while on his way to Beholein. The general said that the Mullah, with his fighting men, had crossed the British line of communication, half-way between Damot and Beholein. The Mullah's move was due to the British hold on the Mading district, and to the pressure on the Abyssinians who are advancing from the south.

General Manning added:

This flight of the Mullah would have been turned into a rout if it had been possible to send a force of sufficient strength from Beholein. The prisoners captured say that the tribes are disorganized.

Stories of Torture.

With reference to the report that there are in the Mullah's camp some British officers, survivors of the disaster to Col. Plunkett's column, an Aden correspondent says that a Sudanese officer had been with the Mullah's force affirmed that two Europeans and ten Yaws were captives with the Mullah, and that, according to the Somali's information, the two former were probably volunteers from the Boer contingent.

A later telegram from the same correspondent says that the members of the balloon section which has just returned to Aden state that spies brought them the information that among the Mullah's captives was one Boer, who was being severely tortured. They had received the information that the man was a Boer who was with Col. Plunkett's force when it met with disaster were only wounded, and that when they fell into the hands of the Mullah's men their heads were cut off and paraded on poles through the country.

A strong feeling is current in Aden that had a force been sent to the relief of Col. Plunkett many of the wounded officers and men would have been saved.

Enquiries in London show that the war office authorities are not inclined to attach too much credence to the report that European officers are captives of the Mullah. They point out that some of the Arab tribes under the Mullah contain men with such light complexions that they might easily be mistaken for Europeans, and they think it possible that the report of English or Boer officers being in captivity has arisen through some such mistake.

King of Roumania Indignant at Action of Serbian Infantry Regiment.

Vienna, June 27.—The King of Roumania has withdrawn all the Roumanian decorations bestowed on officers of the Sixth Serbian Infantry, of which regiment His Majesty recently resigned the honorary colonelcy. The Serbian war minister will be informed that this action is taken because of King Charles's indignation at the assassinations of King Alexander and Queen Draga, in which the Sixth Infantry took a leading part.

London, June 27.—Sidney Lee, the author, on behalf of the trustees of the Shakespeare birthplace, has written a lengthy letter explaining their action in accepting Andrew Carnegie's offer of a library for Stratford-on-Avon. He declares the accusations that the trustees are destroying the historic street where Shakespeare was born are untrue, adding "through Mr. Carnegie's generous aid they are doing precisely the opposite, and are permanently preserving all the structural work which has been proved on accurate examination to possess any kind of archaeological interest."

Charged in Connection With Damages Done by a Scow Under Sub-Contract.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., June 27.—The Canadian tug, David, owned by William Davis & Son, of Ottawa, was seized here to-day while entering the harbor for fuel. The owners hold a contract for enlarging Cardinal canal, and sub-contractors permitted a scow to collide with the steamer Dean of Ogdensburg in passing through the canal. The tug was made the first time the Davis was found in American waters, to force a settlement of damages.

The steel-reckless steamer Petrol, coaled here to-day, on route to the Newfoundland coast, with the Collins Bay Wrecking Co.'s tug, having anchored wrecking on the Great Lakes for the ocean. The schooner Neelon, equipped with 200 tons of pumps and machinery is in tow.

CROATIA REVOLTS.

Armed Peasants at Different Points Have Attacked the Military Forces.

Vienna, June 27.—Fresh disturbances of remarkable extent are reported from Croatia. After a fight between armed peasants and gendarmes near the village of Kulevec on Wednesday, in which four persons were killed and several others seriously wounded, about 180 persons were arrested and taken to Warasdin, where they were placed in prison. The arrest of the prisoners at Warasdin caused much excitement among the inhabitants, and a crowd quickly surrounded their place of confinement with the intention of releasing them. According to unconfirmed reports received here, a fight ensued between the military and the crowd, during the progress of which several persons were killed.

Despite the proclamation of martial law at Lubreg, in consequence of recent rioting there, further disturbances have occurred, and at Kopevnik the railway station was demolished on Friday and two railway officials were dangerously wounded. The rioters also held up the fast train for Budapest and compelled it to remain at Kopevnik all night. The authorities at Agram have sent two battalions of infantry to Warasdin to maintain order. The disturbances in Croatia began last Sunday, when 200 armed peasants entered Lubreg, set fire to the Savings Bank and destroyed several private houses. Disturbances have occurred daily since the fight at the first outburst, and the government has finally compelled to repress the revolt by military force and to proclaim martial law.

An official report confirms the statement that nearly 200 peasants were arrested in three small villages.

ANNUAL FLOWER SERVICE.

Large Attendance at Jubilee Hospital Yesterday and Floral Contributions Were Numerous.

There was a very large attendance at the annual flower service held at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, under the auspices of the Daughters of Pitt yesterday afternoon. Visitors having been asked to bring flowers or potted plants for distribution among the patients, the floral gifts were of great variety and abundance. Rev. Dr. Howe conducted the service, while the music part of the event was in the hands of the choir of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, under the leadership of Herbert Taylor. The service opened with the singing of "God Save the King," after which came the introductory prayer by Rev. Dr. Howe. Then followed an anthem, "Angels' Voices Ever Singing," with solo by Miss Grace King. The address was then read from Isaiah, chapter xxxv, the balance of the service being as follows: Quartette, "God Is a Spirit," Miss King; Mrs. Currie and Messrs. Forrester and Taylor; solo, "For Ever With the Lord," Mrs. D. R. Christopher; solo, "Jerusalem," Herbert Taylor; solo, "O Rest in the Lord," Mrs. Currie; song, "The Pines of Peace," Miss Houghton; solo, "I Will Give You Rest," Herbert Taylor, and the benediction.

INTEND TO BUILD A PALACE HOTEL

C. P. R. WILL PROVIDE FOR THREE HUNDRED

General Manager McNicoll Confers Respecting Project During His Visit to Victoria.

General Manager McNicoll, of the C. P. R., arrived in the city on Saturday evening, leaving on Sunday again. During his stay in the city he was waited upon by members of the Tourist Association. The disputation consisted of Chas. Hayward, the president; James Forman, a Henderson and Herbert Cuthbert, secretary of the association. The attention of the general manager was called to the excursion arrangements which prevailed on the C. P. R. from Manitoba and the Northwest, and which were made to work to the disadvantage of British Columbia, and to the gain of the eastern parts of the Dominion. The rates in force made it possible to travel to the east much cheaper than to the west.

Mr. McNicoll promised to take this matter into consideration. He complimented the Tourist Association upon the good work it was accomplishing. Dealing with the hotel project, he said this was a matter which would be largely dealt with by Sir Thos. Shaughnessy. He stated, however, that the hotel would not only be built, but that the company intended to make it pay, and would undoubtedly have to increase its capacity very soon, as they had to do with their other hotels. Last year the accommodation in the mountain hotels was increased, and instructions were now given to double them again.

His Worship Mayor McCannell also had a conference with the general manager upon the hotel project. The matter was very freely discussed by them though Mr. McNicoll does not claim to have technical knowledge of the subject. That is a matter which is largely in the hands of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. Some questions in connection with it were talked over, the representations made having to be communicated to Sir Thomas upon the general manager's return to Montreal. They were matters of detail, and had nothing whatever to do with the general character of the project, which is an assured fact as far as the C. P. R. is concerned.

The tone of Mr. McNicoll's conversation was in keeping with that already given. The intention, it is quite apparent, is to build an hotel which will cost much more than the $300,000 specified. Mr. McNicoll speaks of a building which will accommodate 300 guests, which will mean a radically increased cost of construction. The C. P. R. is deeply in earnest in the matter, and intend clearly to erect a palace hotel in this city regardless of cost.

HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH NUMBER.

The handsome colored cover enclosing the July Canadian Magazine is in celebration of the hundred and twenty-fifth issue of that periodical. The contents are also indicative of the progress made by Canada and things Canadian. The frontispiece combines pictures of Sir John A. Macdonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier so as to show the similarity and contrast of the two faces. The opening article, "Thirty-six Years of Dominion," gives an admirable brief resume of Canadian development since 1867. This is illustrated with portraits of Howe, Blake, Tupper, Grant, Bourne, not Dawson, Allan, Norquay, Dumas and others prominent in this thirty-six years of a united and developing Dominion. There is a clever character sketch of A. F. Gault, whose name has been so long associated with the cotton industry. "Elevators and Modern Granaries" and "A Dominion Exhibition" are two bright illustrated articles. D. A. Stewart describes the disaster at Frank, and this is also illustrated from excellent photographs. Mr. Colquhoun's essay, which won the prize in Sir Sandford Fleming's competition, is one of the features of the issue. It is entitled "Journalism and The University." There are short stories by E. W. Thomson, Duncan Campbell Scott, J. A. McShane and Isaac Landman, besides the usual bright d-partments. It is certainly a most creditable issue.

Gus Lawson won the 15-mile motor-paced grand circuit championship race on the reverse track at Boston on Saturday.

BASEBALL MATCH

DEFEATED VICTORIA BY EIGHT TO FIVE

Other Games Played on Saturday Afternoon—Cricket, Etc.—Tuning Up the Shamrocks.

Victoria and Vancouver baseball teams, the old-time rivals, met on the Oak Bay diamond on Saturday. There was a larger crowd in attendance than at any time this season. The game was evenly contested, but the ball played by both teams was at times of an inferior order. Vancouver scored 8 runs and Victoria 5, but of these only one was earned. Vancouver's runs were all scored on errors of one kind or another, and the local nine were only successful in securing one run in a legitimate manner. At one stage of the game enthusiasm was intense. The confident way the visitors handled themselves in practice and their success in piling up two runs in the first two innings had somewhat dampened the spirits of those present. In the fifth inning, however, there was a change. Victoria not only evened with Vancouver, but made one run to the good, and cheer upon cheer saluted the locals when the bell recorded their first score. For the remainder of the game, however, there was comparative quiet.

To a number of inexcusable errors may be traced the principal causes of the evening of the home team's color. The boys were palpably nervous, if not actually frightened, at the array of professional Holmes had stacked up against them. If the article of ball put up by the Vancouver aggregation on Saturday is the best they could do, there is no doubt that had the locals played their usual game they would have been victorious. At times Victoria played well, but all was spoiled by a number of costly mistakes. Certainly the most glaring blunder of the match was made when Broadhurst was allowed to cross the plate while McConnell attempted to cut off men at first. One such mistake might be attributed to misjudgment, but as the same thing was deliberately repeated, no satisfactory explanation can be given. Smith made a poor play in allowing what he believed to be a foul hit to go, until the umpire gave a decision, while two men were scoring. Had he thrown home the probability is that one at least would have been caught. With the exception of this and a couple other slight mistakes of judgment, Smith held down the initial bag in his usual excellent style. Haynes at second was somewhat off color. Smith, Emerson and Burns on several occasions attempted to do work that should have fallen to his lot. His principal transgression was the muff of a rather swift fly hit by Emerson in the box, was not up to his usual standard. His pitching was occasionally wild. The first two men who came to bat were allowed to first and second on a dead ball. Fortunately, however, this alarming record was not repeated. On the whole he fielded his position well. Chase, as usual, was a star behind the bat, his swift and accurate throwing allowing no base stealing. The locals were fairly good at the bat, in all seven hits being secured.

It would be scarcely possible to gather together a more heterogeneous bunch of players than that which represented Vancouver. When they appeared on the field those who have been in the habit of attending the games played here, recognized Everett, Mount Vernon and Nanaimo, together with Stovall, the famous American league player, who had been imported for the day to help defeat the locals. With all their professional players the ball played was far below that seen many times this season at Oak Bay diamond. Letman pitched a first class game, and received magnificent support from Spencer behind the bat. Outside the battery, however, the team was not what was anticipated. Ballentine held down first base fairly well, and Ashman at second was generally in the right place. Stovall as short stop was disappointing. As will be seen by the synopsis, three errors are marked down to him. Schmidt at third did creditable work. The outfield handled all flies faultlessly.

Vancouver opened the score account in the first inning. Linaham went to bat first and got first base on a dead ball. He was cut off at second, however, when Broadhurst hit a grounder to McConnell. Ballentine then walked and Stovall bunted, bringing in Broadhurst. Schmidt and McRae retired the side. On coming to bat Victoria went out in short order. Rithet placed himself on second through a short hit and an over-throw to first. Smith was the only man out, and chances of scoring were bright when Chase came to the bat. However he was caught on a hit to left field. McConnell fanned, and the locals again took the field.

In the second inning the visitors went out easily. Victoria did practically the same. After Burns had knocked a pretty one to left field, he was unable to score. Haynes, Potts and Moore retiring in one, two and three order.

Another run was made by Vancouver in the third. Linaham knocked to McConnell, but was caught at first. Broadhurst hit one to Moore, who allowed it to pass, through his fingers, striking the former three bags. Ballentine hit to McConnell. The latter, instead of attempting to cut off Broadhurst at the home plate, threw to first. Through this palpable mistake both were safe. Stovall hit to Potts, and the latter by an excellent throw to Rithet at third caught Ballentine. Rithet threw to Emerson and Stovall, thinking to catch Emerson napping, attempted to steal third. A race ensued between Seattle's pitcher and the Victoria twirler. When the latter got near third, however, he tossed to Rithet, who caught Stovall.

The locals again retired without runs. Emerson struck out, and Smith did the same. Rithet, after a hard run, got to first safely on a short infield hit, but Chase retired the side, being caught out on a hit to centre.

There was nothing done on either side in the fourth. For Victoria McConnell was caught on a fly hit to left field, and Burns and Haynes went out on strikes.

In the fifth the locals scored three runs, and needless to say the performance elicited wild applause. Potts hit a fly to centre and was caught. Both Moore and Emerson, however, made beautiful singles. Smith fanned, but Rithet knocked a grounder to Stovall and on the latter's error got first safely, and Moore and Emerson both scored.

Chase hit another single, which brought in Rithet. McConnell walked, but further scoring was prevented through Burns being caught on a fly to second. Vancouver's turn at the bat in the sixth was marked by the scoring of three more runs. After Ballentine had been put out on a hit to Haynes, Stovall secured his base on a safe hit. Schmidt walked. McRae made a safe hit to left field. Spencer then knocked one to Rithet, who caught Stovall attempting to get home. Letman knocked one along the foul line in right field, bringing in Schmidt and McRae. Ashman was at the bat when Spencer was allowed to score on an error.

Nothing happened when Victoria came to bat in the sixth, but the visitors added two in the seventh. Broadhurst and Ballentine did the work, with the assistance of a hit by Schmidt. The eighth inning was uneventful, but in the ninth both sides scored. Vancouver tallied one, Broadhurst again going round. He got first on Smith's error and came in on single by Ballentine and sacrifice hits by McRae and Schmidt. Rithet and McConnell scored for Victoria in the same inning. The former started the work by making a two bagger. McConnell then got to base on balls, and Burns brought both in by a good safe hit.

WEDNESDAY'S GAME.
On July 1st, Dominion Day, and on the 2nd, the local team will meet the Multnomah Athletic Club nine, of Portland. The Multnomahs are, according to the Portland Oregonian, the best amateur organization in Oregon, having met and defeated almost every amateur and semi-professional team in the state. Their team is making a tour of British Columbia and Washington cities, and will open here. They will arrive on Wednesday morning, and will be quartered at the Driand during their stay here.

The line up of the team is: Scott, catcher; Whitehouse and Gearin, pitchers; Zan, first base; Crawford, second base; Fenton, short; Murphy, third base; Oliver, left field; Cook, centre field; Dolph, right field.

The team is composed entirely of bona fide members of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, the club being well known as one of the wealthiest organizations of its kind on the coast.

FERNWOODS 9, HILLSIDES 7.

As a result of the match between the intermediate teams, Hillside and Fernwoods, on Saturday at Oak Bay, the latter nine won hands the league. This game took place immediately after the senior match, and many remained to witness the two crack intermediate teams cross bats. On the whole the game was interesting, and the article of ball played by both teams was at times excellent. The score was 9 to 7 in favor of the Fernwoods at the close of the ninth inning.

Camusca and Smith, pitchers for the Fernwood and Hillside teams respectively, both played well. The former showed the greatest speed, and the latter, it was evident, possessed the best curves. Both, however, were hit severely on a number of occasions. Three earned runs were made by the Hillside in the sixth inning, Camusca being punished to the extent of a single, a couple of doubles and a three-bagger. Five safe hits were secured by the Fernwoods off Smith in the fifth and sixth, and these, assisted by five errors, resulted in a tally of seven runs.

For the Fernwoods, Robertson was behind the bat, and for the Hillside Catterall held down that difficult position. Both did their work excellently. Grey, Carlow and Jeffs for the winners, and McIlroy, Anderson, Smith and Hughes for the Hillside did the best hitting of the game.

SHAMROCK'S TRIAL.
New York, June 27.—Sir Thomas Lipton's new cup challenger, Shamrock III., was given her first test in American waters today in an informal trial with Shamrock I. off Sandy Hook. In the first ten miles of a fifteen-mile race to windward, in a very light air, the new boat beat the old one about ten minutes, and in a run of fifteen miles to leeward, nine minutes. There was a long, gentle sea, and the new challenger slipped cleanly over it, making little runs under her bow.

Taking into consideration the assertion by English yachtsmen that Shamrock I. is ten minutes faster in a thirty-mile course than Shamrock II., and that Shamrock II. is ten minutes faster than Shamrock III., the new boat's first performance on this side of the Atlantic marks her as probably the most dangerous challenger Sir Thomas has brought over. In a light air and smooth water she showed herself to be very fast. The chief purpose of the trial was to stretch the sails and revolve the tuning up process.

Sir Thomas and Designer "Fife" were aboard Shamrock III., and Col. S. Bell and Capt. S. Bell were aboard Shamrock I., when the yachts started to beat seaward against a four knot wind. Shamrock III. was slightly in the lead at the start, and began at once to add to it. The new boat pointed higher and footed faster than Shamrock II. They headed out to sea for more than two hours, and during all that time Shamrock III. gained steadily. At 2.45, when the challenger was leading Shamrock I. by ten minutes, Shamrock III. turned about and ran back to rejoin the other, crossing the wake of the old boat. Shamrock III. was given a freer wind and went off for a five-mile run at a fast clip.

As Shamrock I. did not keep in close company with the new boat there was no opportunity to compare the boats on that point of sailing. Shamrock III. had passed Long Branch seven miles off shore when, at 3.40, both boats came about close to windward and started for Sandy Hook with spinnakers set. Before a light breeze they ran fifteen miles along the coast to the Scottish Lightship and were started by passing steamers.

Shamrock III. quickly began to gain, and in an hour's sailing, when the boats had covered about half the course, had established a lead nearly half a mile. This is called the best point of sailing for the old boat.

Shamrock III. passed the lightship at 5.25, while the ex-challenger was about a mile astern. Shamrock I. reached the lightship at 6.01, but had lost time by the time in her spinnaker before reaching the finish.

The fleet anchored at Sandy Hook. The Shamrocks will go out again on Monday. Sir Thomas has on board the Erin the beautiful silver cup which he will present to the San Diego, Cal., Yacht Club as a racing trophy. It is inscribed "The Sir Thomas Lipton Cup."

ONE DESIGN RACE.

One of the series of one design yacht races was sailed on Saturday afternoon over the usual course from Pearline Rock to Macaulay Point, and there around another lap to the starting point. Redskin, Onedia and Marietta were the only boats which took part. A start was made at 3 o'clock promptly, Redskin crossing the line first on the starboard tack. Onedia, however, had the advantage, being on the weather quarter of the leader. She soon took the lead, and before long both Redskin and Marietta were forced to tack to port under Onedia's stern. The boats held the same position as at the start as far as Macaulay Point. Onedia, however, there inadvertently tacked into a strong flood and up to Macaulay Point Redskin had the advantage. On rounding off Macaulay Point it was found that Redskin had gained a lead of about 90 yards. The first round was completed in the following order: Redskin, 3.35.30; Onedia, 3.38.30; Marietta, 3.40.18.

The second round had not been started upon long before Marietta carried away her jib stay plate and was forced to retire. The wind at this time was strong, blowing between 15 and 20 miles an hour, and

LOCAL PRODUCTION.

Composition Honored by Great Songstress to Whom It Was Dedicated.

One of the recent songs composed by G. Jennings Burnett, of this city, entitled "Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy," is worthily distinguished in its acceptance by Mlle. Dolores, to whom it has been dedicated, and whose world-famed voice was heard but a short time ago in this city. Mr. Burnett is to be congratulated on the assurance furnished by the appended letter, that Mlle. Dolores will introduce this song to the public; her rendering of it will be such as to reveal its intrinsic value and lead to its introduction to all musical circles. The letter follows:

Mr. G. Jennings Burnett, Victoria, B. C.:
Dear Sir—Mlle. Dolores has pleased to receive your music in Victoria and accepts the dedication of "Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy." She will be happy to keep the composition under her notice, and when an opportunity occurs will introduce it in public. Mlle. Dolores compliments you on your talent, and desires me to give you her best wishes for your artistic success. I am, yours faithfully,

EVIDENCE OF HARMONY.

The political situation generally is likely to remain somewhat torpid for a few weeks. Even politicians have a decided disinclination to becoming active at a season of the year when nature has completed her most arduous labors and peacefully awaits fruition and harvest. About the only matter that will trouble the heads of the politicians of Victoria until the voters' lists have been completed and the date of the selection of candidates drawn near is the attitude of the dominant faction in the Tory party towards Mr. McPhillips. The Colonist, which generally says more than it would say if it were a thoroughly discreet organ, intimates to the Attorney-General that he may get a nomination from the Tory convention if he asks for it. If that means anything at all, it is an intimation to the minister that he must do penance for the past before he can be received into full communion with the elect.

It is not customary for public men, even if they yearn in their hearts for honors, to ask conventions to give them nominations. Mr. McPhillips is not the man to humble himself before the set who manipulate the levers of the machine in Victoria. He has been guided by the promptings of his inward counselor through some very trying experiences during the past couple of years. There is nothing in his latest utterances to indicate that he has repented at all. In fact, no later than Sunday morning the Attorney-General intimated, through the medium of a public letter to Senator Macdonald, that he considered the gross deceit was practiced by Colonel Prior upon the electors of Victoria when he laid before them the alleged contract for the construction of the Canadian Northern Railway to this city. Mr. McPhillips opposed the Colonel then with all his might. Writing on the subject of that miserable campaign of cant and humbug, the Minister says: "In the first place, the company never contracted to do what it was represented it would do, and, in the second place, the proposed public aid from the province was largely in excess of any aid the province should be expected to give and without safeguards absolutely necessary in the public interest." That seems to us to be a clear intimation that Mr. McPhillips is determined to maintain his position, and in defending the position logically, he stamps all who had any part in that piece of gross deception and humbug as unworthy of public confidence. The whole of the wing of the party which is behind Colonel Prior now abetted him in that campaign of trickery, and therefore comes under the ban pronounced by the Attorney-General. If Mr. McPhillips sinks his principles and takes his place upon a platform alongside of such a parcel of political rogues and tricksters he becomes one of them. There is no escape for him, nor will any plea he may with legal casuistry put forward, exonerate him from complicity in that offence against public decency and morality, nor from other offences which followed, and which were nothing more than might have been expected from men who comforted themselves by such low standards. And the full story has not yet been told. There is more to follow. The Times does not carry a button, nor, we believe, do the Liberals of Victoria concern themselves at all from a party point of view, about the outcome of the dilemma in which the Conservatives of this constituency find themselves. The plain fact is that the one representative of the party in the Melville government dare not associate himself with the dominant faction here, the faction which boasts that it controls the nominations, without assuming a burden of odium which would assuredly sink him when he attempted a defence before the electorate. There is no possibility of unity except in disaster. The position of Mr. McPhillips would be far more tolerable, and the possibility of success in his case far more certain, if he were to take the stump as an independent.

RAILWAYS AND PROGRESS.

Canadians are glad to know that the Canadian Pacific Railway is doing well and that it promises in course of time, and that not a very long time either, to become one of the biggest corporations, owning one of the most magnificent properties on this great continent of magnificent things. But it is not so much the welfare of the corporation the people of Canada are interested in after all, as will be discovered if we analyze the feelings with which the reports of the company are scrutinized. The statements of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company are examined with great care because they indicate with exactitude the progress and development of the country the road serves and is evidently doing a great deal to open up. President Shaughnessy recently submitted an admirably condensed report of what the C. P. R. had done since the country his company serves was rediscovered and began to take a new form of life with the departure from power of the late Conservative government.

Probably Sir Thomas did not intend that the deduction should be drawn from his figures that there is urgent need for more railways in the West and Northwest. Yet such is the very lesson that will be learned by public men who aim at the stimulation of yet greater progress than has been. The Canadian Pacific Railway has brought population and enterprise to a mere fringe of the great Northwestern country. Extend the means of communication and of transportation until double or treble the amount of territory is brought within the zone of the cultivable area, and the world will begin to understand the significance of the position of Canada as a producer of that which is the foundation of all wealth and prosperity. That is what the Canadian government is aiming at to-day, and that is the very thing it will surely accomplish if given a sufficient opportunity, of which there is not much doubt. But the matter is one that requires very careful handling. The people of Canada would never consent to the perpetration of any such deal as that which brought the Canadian Pacific Railway into existence. Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues practically flung at the syndicate which built the road cash and property of the value of at least sixty million dollars. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his government must proceed about the business of securing the construction of a second transcontinental road in a more cautious manner. They must serve the public by securing for the country the best possible bargain and the completion of the line at the earliest practicable date.

As evidence in support of his contention that there has been no break-down in the transportation system of his road in consequence of the unprecedented demands made upon it, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy quoted the following report of progress made: "In 1901 the number of locomotives in the freight service was 527, while, this year, it has increased to 657, an advance of 24 per cent. To show that the company is alive to the exigencies of the case, I may say that orders have been given which, were the engines now in commission, would have brought the advance in this branch of the service up to 38.1 per cent. The capacity of the engines in question has gone up 37.5 per cent. The capacity of both the cars and the engines has gone up wonderfully in the last two years, larger cars and more powerful engines being constantly brought into requisition.

"But the growth in the freight earnings tells the most forceful story of all. During the year ending June 30th, 1901, the freight earnings were $18,083,186, last year they were $24,160,428, while this year (always remembering that May and June are estimated on a basis of the two corresponding months of last year) the freight earnings will be $28,127,065. The increase in the freight earnings in 1902 over the year next preceding will thus be seen to have been 27.48 per cent., and in 1903 over 1902 48.17 per cent.—figures which, I think, prove conclusively that the volume of trade flowing over our line is at once abnormal, extraordinary and unprecedented."

The Scot seems to be more than turning the laugh on his southern neighbor. After all the jibes and jeers, fun and hilarity, over the alleged witicism of Sydney Smith about the necessity of a surgical operation to enable hard northern heads to see the point of a joke, here are Barrie and one or two other Scots making the comedies which amuse London and English theatre-goers. they are healthy, wholesome plays, too, a credit to writers, players and hearers. We are told by a London paper that early in September Mr. Charles Frohman hopes to produce a new comedy by Mr. Barrie, and Mr. John Hare has consented to give up his autumn provincial tour in order to create the leading part. At present nothing more can be said of the new play than that it is a present-day problem comedy in four acts—for it is not yet finished, and its title will probably not be chosen for a couple of months to come. It is just possible that with the advent of the new play Mr. Barrie will have the unique distinction of seeing three of his works simultaneously performed at West-end theatres, for the end of "Quality Street" at the Vaudeville, and of "The Admirable Crichton" at the Duke of York's, both of them, by the way, under the management of Mr. Charles Frohman, is not yet in sight. Mr. Barrie is taking vengeance on behalf of his maligned countrymen in fine style, and what is of quite as much value in the eyes of most of his breed, is making a beautiful collection of barbies. He is reported to have reaped a harvest worth a quarter of a million during the past season from royalties alone. No wonder he is neglecting his book publishers. It is a pity the Scotch author spoiled what might have been a still finer record by marrying an English girl and an actress! However, with Scots at the head of the political and ecclesiastical affairs of the southern country, such a concession may be granted with grace.

The political storm in Ontario is over for this year. The Legislature has adjourned, and the man called Gage has laid his case before God, as he cannot get justice before an earthly court. In making this announcement the honorable and honored politician has followed the example of his extremely pious, severely bitter and very able counsel. The Tory party seemed to be in considerable doubt for a while as to whether it would accept the verdict of the court, which would mean the dropping of Gage into the backwoods of his own remote constituency, or stand by its stalwart, if somewhat malodorous, champion. It chose the loyal part, probably because it had to. Gage is not a man to offend if he knows things, and the chances are that he could tell where the bribery money came from if he found that it would pay as well to be honest as to perform the more congenial role and at the same time "get even" with the friends who had deserted him in his day of trouble. And so we find all the Tory, and some of the alleged independent newspapers of the Dominion vailing the immaculate and innocent Gage to the heavens and tearing the reputation of the judges of Canada limb from limb. This is merely a characteristic manifestation. The men ber for Manitoulin was clearly proved by evidence that was unimpeachable to have been guilty of stealing and forging bank deposit slips, of destroying a cash book which he did not desire to have made public, and of suppressing information about twelve hundred dollars which came into his possession about the same time as the alleged original bribe. What credit could possibly attach to the word of such a man as that? And yet his statements are all accepted and the judges are arraigned with characteristic Tory virulence because of their findings. If there is not a tremendous revulsion of feeling against the party because of this senseless, pig-headed and tactless campaign, then human nature in Ontario is of a special brand.

—An ice cream and strawberry social and dance will be given by the Retail Grocers' Protective Association on the Gorge this evening. Boats leave McIntosh's bathhouse at 7:15 o'clock. Those not having tickets may obtain them at the bathhouse.

—In the advertising columns of this paper it will be seen that on Monday, the 29th inst., Wm. T. Hardaker will sell at public auction, without reserve, as a going concern, the bottling plant of the Capital City Bottling Company, with horses, wagons, harness, etc.

—At the regular monthly meeting of the Victoria Typographical union, No. 201, held yesterday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. J. Randolph, president; W. H. Cullin, vice-president; Geo. M. Watt, secretary; Thos. Boaz, treasurer; Robt. Holloway, sergeant-at-arms; H. Dods, J. W. Henry and W. E. Ditchburn, executive committee; J. Chow and T. H. Twigg, delegates to Trades and Labor Council, with Geo. Goldwell as alternate; Jas. Pottenger, A. King and J. Chow, auditors.

—The citizens of Port Angeles have arranged to celebrate the Fourth of July in grand style this year. There will be good horse racing, baseball between Victoria and Port Angeles, tennis, tennis, athletic sports galore. The celebration committee has engaged the Victoria City band to play at Port Angeles, and it will go on the first trip of the new steamer Clallam, playing on the way over, also on last trip back. The Clallam will make three round trips between Victoria and Port Angeles, leaving here at 8:30 a. m., 1:15 p. m., and 7 p. m. The fare for the round trip has been placed at 50 cents.

—The excellent tones of the new organ in the First Presbyterian church were heard to good advantage on Sunday night, when Frank Watkins played several numbers to a congregation which crowded the building. The introductory number, "O Gladstone Night," from Sullivan's "Golden Legend," developed the rich harmonies of the organ. The other solo selections were equally acceptable. The choir gave two numbers with a marked degree of spirit, and is very fortunate in having for its future support an organ of such excellence. The vocal contributors were Mrs. Connors, Miss Morrell and A. Seymour. F. Dyro conducted the choir, and played on his cello an Andante Religioso by Thome, a selection well suited to the organ accompaniment.

—The Ashcroft Journal says: "One of the best known Victorian commercial men, who regularly visits Cariboo, is H. B. Berks, representing J. Piercy & Co. He reached Ashcroft by a B. C. Express special, after visiting all the principal points in Cariboo, and has to his credit a very 'exciting adventure,' which happened while crossing the Fraser river at Soda Creek. When leaving the Soda side the ferry boat struck the rocks and was rapidly capsizing when the ferry man cut the ropes, which allowed the ferry boat to right itself. Not all the ropes were cut, of course, but enough to permit the boat to assume its usual position. For a few minutes, says Mr. Berks, the situation was critical. The horses were frightened and commenced backing. Had they been wild, unbroken horses, they would certainly have gone into the river, and he with them. A huge tree in the river was primarily the cause of what was nearly a fatal accident."

—The engagement of the Pollard Juvenile Opera Company at the Victoria theatre, in order to close Saturday, "A Gaiety Girl" being presented at the afternoon matinee and also in the evening. A crowded house greeted the children at each performance, and in the evening encores were the rule. The youthful performers acquitted themselves creditably and the opera was thoroughly enjoyed. During the second act Fred Pollard sang the old favorite, "Please Go Away and Let Me Sleep," and was compelled to respond to several recalls.

—A letter has been received from a member of the party of treasure-seekers who sailed from Halifax on March 17th for the south seas in the schooner Hattie L. M., commanded by Capt. C. H. McLeod, announcing the drowning of Sir Astley Cooper, Bart., of England, who was second in command of the expedition. Cooper tripped on the deck, fell overboard on April 8th, and, being unable to swim, was drowned before the vessel could be brought about. Sir Astley Cooper was a grandson of Sir Astley Cooper, the famous court physician. He met Capt. McLeod in Victoria a year ago and then formed the plan to join the expedition. He was a man of wealth and high social position.

—The "Le Moniteur Illustré des Expositions Internationales" of Paris, France, has on exhibition just now at the Exposition of Hygiene and Alimentation, a collection of salmon, which has been canned by the British Columbia Canning Company, and are exhibited by the French agency of that company, No. 65 Amsterdam street, Paris. The salmon shown are commonly called "Sockeyes," on account of their blue-black backs, and these are chosen for canning on account of their beautiful color, their richness in oil and their exquisite flavor. The fisheries and factories of this company are installed at Victoria, B. C., Canada. In Paris at the International Fisheries Exhibition in 1889, and at the Universal Exhibition of 1900, the canned salmon of British Columbia obtained a silver medal and at the present exhibition a gold medal. This, however, will only confirm the reputation which these goods have earned long since. Here in Canada the products of the British Columbia Canning Company, which is represented by Messrs. Gillespie & Co., Montreal, have disproved the old saying with reference to "no one being a prophet in his own country" and the Chanticleer and Owekayno brands are much appreciated by eaters of salmon.

DOUGLAS GARDENS TO BE OPENED TO-NIGHT

Most Attractive Programme Has Been Arranged for the Inaugural Entertainment—Improvements.

This evening the Douglas gardens will be thrown open to the public by the Tourist Association, whose officers have for some time past been toiling indefatigably with a view to making the place as attractive and beautiful as possible. The result is that the gardens look better now than they ever did, which is saying a great deal.

To the left of the pathway, leading from the main entrance to the grounds on Belleville street and facing the Douglas residence, a band stand has been erected, similar to that seen in the Golden Gate park, San Francisco. The design is that considered best for the convenience of sound, and will throw the whole square or park within the range of the band's music influence. To the right of this structure, across the pathway, a stand has been built for the moving picture machine, and the scenes will be displayed on canvas in front of the band stand. Numerous seats for the accommodation of visitors have been provided; while within the house arrangements have been made for popular refreshments. The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated with electric lamps, etc., and in short nothing has been overlooked by President Hayward and Secretary Cuthbert and their staffs to make the place cozy, picturesque and idealistic for a summer resort for evening entertainments.

The musical feature of these entertainments is one which Bandmaster Flinn, of the Fifth Regiment, will devote particular attention. He has prepared a special treat for to-night, and has arranged for a series of attractions which should go a long way in popularizing the resort. The programme for this evening is of a character that would attract a large number if admission was five times that which it is, namely, 10 cents. A number of those taking part come from different parts of the United States, and have reputations which should ensure the enjoyment of the programme; irrespective of the hand selections which have been chosen. The programme in full is as follows:

March—The Battleship ..... Yule
Overture—Post and Poast ..... Suppe
A Nocturne—In a Cozy Corner ..... Bratslav
Selection fr. Prince of Placem ..... Leaders
Two-Step—Coco Cas ..... Derville
—Marjorie Mandeville, the child wonder, performing marvellous feats of contortion.
Jack Lyons, baritone, singing the illustrated song, with handsomely painted slides, "There Are Two Sides to a Story."
Walter H. Orr, the world's greatest fancy trick and mimicry bag puncher, closing his act with imitation of electric storm scene.
Medley of Popular Songs ..... Arr. Finn
Patrol—British ..... Asche
Selection fr. The Mocking Bird ..... Edwards
March—The Nation's Pride ..... Scoutin
The Borescope .....
God Save the King.

—The mid-summer exhibition at Duncans on Wednesday, July 1st, promises to eclipse all former events of the kind in that district, the prize list and programme of sports being an exceptionally attractive one. The fare from Victoria to Duncans and return is one dollar, with half fare for children under twelve.

Campbell Bros., the champion club manipulators, will be here this week. Billy Campbell is the champion bag puncher of America and winner of international championship of Canada. Clement Perkins, the renowned and gifted baritone, will render the illustrated songs: "A Long List on the Look Out for the Future" and "How We Would Remedy It." The speaker outlined the appalling distress in India at the time of the fearful famine which swept off thousands, and told the cause of such conditions being due to the exactions of capitalist exploitation in the form of taxation. The speaker in stating the remedy for such evils said: "Socialism would make common property of everything that is now used by some human beings to exploit others, and land being one of the great factors of production, Socialism would make land common property. Under Socialism no single human being in India or any other country would ever die of starvation so long as anywhere in the whole world there was an elevator full of wheat and a railroad or a steamship to transport it."

—At the regular public meeting of the Socialist party held in Labor hall last evening, an interesting address was given by Mrs. C. J. Clayton on the subject of "Famine, Its Cause and How We Would Remedy It." The speaker outlined the appalling distress in India at the time of the fearful famine which swept off thousands, and told the cause of such conditions being due to the exactions of capitalist exploitation in the form of taxation. The speaker in stating the remedy for such evils said: "Socialism would make common property of everything that is now used by some human beings to exploit others, and land being one of the great factors of production, Socialism would make land common property. CABLE INTERRUPTIONS.
Sir Thomas Shaughnessy Explains Cause—Says Underground Cable Will Be Laid.

A London dispatch says that complaints of delays in Anglo-Australian messages, via the Pacific cable, have been explained by Austen Chamberlain, who informed Sir John Colomb they were due to interruptions on the Vancouver Island land lines in the western section, which were built by the Canadian Pacific for the Pacific cable.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R., says: "The interruptions, as is not unusual in a new country, are due to trees falling upon the wires, but steps are now being taken to remedy this defect. The interruptions were only in the initial stages of the cable. We are now preparing the lay an underground cable across the island, a distance of about 23 miles. That cable, I believe, is now on its way to Vancouver Island, and before very long these periodical interruptions will be a thing of the past." This is the cable which is coming on the cable steamer Iroquois, which will shortly arrive from the Old Country. A wire is to be laid from where the cable now reaches shore at Banchfield creek up the Alberni canal, thus avoiding the roughest section of the coast where the cable runs.

LIBERALS ASTIR IN THE INTERIOR

VARIOUS DISTRICTS
READY FOR THE FRAY

The Minister of Mines is Looking After the Roads and Incidentally Electioneering.

In the Upper Country it is reported that political matters are the chief topic of conversation.

The Liberal party is preparing for the struggle, and arrangements have been made for the holding of conventions for the selection of candidates in the Kamloops, Lillooet, Yale and Cariboo electoral districts. In the former the name of F. J. Deane, who represented the district in 1898, is mentioned, and in addition Mayor M. P. Gordon, of Kamloops, is also regarded by many as the Liberal candidate.

It is understood that F. J. Fulton will be the Conservative nominee, and though the Kamloops district was gerrymandered in the Redistribution Act, it is considered that a candidate will be elected by a good majority.

In Yale the names of S. Henderson and D. Murphy, both of Ashcroft, are mentioned. Which will be the choice of the convention it is impossible to say.

It is thought that Chas. A. Semlin, who was spoken of as the possible Conservative candidate, will not consent to run. Mr. Semlin has, heretofore, always been elected by Liberals and opposed by the bulk of Conservatives, and he is not disposed to prove ungrateful to his old and tried allies.

MIGRATORY SHEEP

There are about 140,000 migratory sheep in Spain, which each year travel as much as two hundred miles from the plains to the mountains. They are known as transhumantes, and their march, resting places and behavior are governed by age, regulations, dating from the fourteenth century. At certain times no one may travel the same route as the sheep, which have the right to graze on all open and common land on the way. For this purpose a road ninety yards wide must be left on all enclosed and private property. The shepherds lead their flocks, which follow after and around. The flocks are accompanied by provision mules and by large dogs to guard against wolves. The merino sheep travel four hundred miles to the mountains, and the total time spent on the migration there and back is fourteen weeks.

In Lillooet there are several possible candidates spoken of. It is not known yet whether A. W. Smith will again seek election. If he does it will be in the Conservative interest, and he will probably be opposed by the Liberal party.

RED CROSS NURSE

Red Cross Nurse, a two-year-old by Prince Rudolf, bred at Mallowmoor farm, North Saanich, is making a name for himself on the Seattle track. The Post-Intelligencer says: "The field ran well, and to the head of the stretch in the four furlong race for two-year-olds, Red Cross Nurse avoiding the early pace. Emil set the pace in the back stretch to the half, but gave way to Red Cross Nurse as the field straightened out for the last post. The Nurse had a scant length to her credit at the mark, closely pressed by Emil, Caynes whipped in ahead of Stellas and in this order the horses finished. Red Cross Nurse increasing her lead, and winning by four lengths in the final sixteenth, and showing the best foot of the field. Track muddy. Odds 4 to 1 to 7-10 favorites.
